Brian Byers Joins McGuire Real Estate

Marin County, CA – February 9, 2009 – McGuire Real Estate, a San Francisco-based real estate company specializing in luxury real estate, announced today the appointment of Brian Byers as Realtor® in its Mill Valley office at 1040 Redwood Highway.

Byers joins McGuire from Pacific Union Real Estate where he had been a top producer and in 2007 was designated Top 2% Countrywide and Top 1% Nationwide. He maintains a commitment and professionalism that has developed respect with his Marin County clients. Before his successful real estate career, Byers started his own company managing licensed merchandise for popular bands and music artists, including the Grateful Dead, Neil Diamond, Santana, and Bob Dylan.

Byers is an avid mountain biker and hiker and currently resides in Mill Valley.

About McGuire Real Estate

McGuire Real Estate (www.mcguire.com) has been an integral part of the real estate scene in the San Francisco Bay Area, stretching back nearly 90 years. A mid-sized, regional boutique, McGuire specializes in luxury real estate but applies the highest standards of service to properties in every price range, and to every client. Its “customer first” philosophy and local focus have proved to be a winning formula for this Bay Area real estate leader. McGuire’s affiliations with Luxury Portfolio and Leading Real Estate Companies of the World, successfully connects McGuire’s clients and agents to a worldwide marketplace. Luxury Portfolio is an exclusive network of luxury properties worldwide, and its parent company, Leading Real Estate Companies of the World, is the largest global real estate network in the real estate industry. McGuire operates three offices in San Francisco, one in Mill Valley serving Marin County and one in Burlingame serving the Peninsula.
